The Las Vegas Review-Journal, Nevada's most trusted source for local news, selects SCS's Production Suite

SCS is pleased to announce that the Las Vegas Review-Journal has contracted with SCS to install its Production Suite – Layout-8000, SCS/ClassPag and SCS/Track – in 2021.

The systems will be part of an overhaul of the Review-Journal's entire advertising and production workflow. "We're excited that the staff in Las Vegas recognized SCS's Production Suite as the industry leader," says Phil Curtolo, Director of Sales at SCS. "Layout-8000, SCS/ClassPag and SCS/Track continue to be the standard for automated ad dummying, classified pagination, and digital and print ad production management."

The SCS Production Suite will be integrated with AdPoint from Lineup, continuing to expand a relationship which includes implementations at The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Sonoma Media Investments and, most recently, the new Gannett.
